

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 29, 1900

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

THE best materials combined with care, skill and accuracy insure good results. No other methods are ever used in our prescription work. Penny Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

HILL SPALDING went to Lebanon Friday.

MISS MARY RICH spent several days at Wilmore.

MISS SALLIE GIVENS went to Louisville yesterday.

MISS EVA CALDWELL, of Waynesburg, was here Friday.

MR. W. S. WARREN is visiting his daughter in Louisville.

J. A. CORBIN and wife went to Louisville yesterday morning.

MR. ROBERT G. FAHNS, of Louisville, spent a few days with his parents.

DR. W. A. BROWN, of Parksville, was the guest of his nephew, Dr. E. J. Brown.

JESSE C. MERSON has been made chairman of the board of trustees of Corbin.

COL. W. G. WELCH spent several days at Williamsburg on legal business last week.

JUDGE D. R. CARR and wife, of Glasgow, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lynn.

MRS. ED WILKINSON and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilmon at Burgin.

MR. B. P. SHEWMAKER and wife of Moreland, came down Friday night to hear Gen. Gordon.

MR. P. M. MCKINNEY, of Abilene, Texas, is with his father, A. B. McKinney, at McKinney.

SEYMOUR RUSSELL DILLON and family, of Livingston, were guests at the home of J. H. Tucker.

MESSRS. JOS. AND JACOB GINSBURG went to Liberty Sunday to see after their store at that point.

LITTLE ROBERT PENZEL, who has been attending school in Cincinnati, returned home Saturday.

MISS HELEN THURMOND, of this county, closed a successful term of school at Broadhead Friday.

MR. AND MRS. BRECK GRAYES, of Livingston, were here to consult Dr. Carpenter and Brown Sunday.

OUR friend John H. Nichols, county clerk of Boyle, will build a handsome residence on Lexington Street in Danville.

JOHN LUTES, of Lutes & Co., went to Lancaster yesterday to buy stock and will go from there to Frankfort and Louisville.

DR. J. D. PETTUS, of Crab Orchard, joined his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Cummins, here yesterday and went with her to Louisville.

MISS ELLEN BUTNER, of Rockcastle, who has been in Cincinnati for treatment for eye, nose and throat, has returned much improved.

As many of the ladies of the sewing club will be in Louisville and elsewhere this week, the regular meeting is postponed till Thursday, June 8.

MR. MC WHIRL leaves this week for Texas to reside. No better democrat or cleverer gentleman has shaken Kentucky dirt from his feet in years.

MISS JENNIE LYNN is in Millersburg to attend the commencement and go with her sister, Miss Mamie, to Cincinnati, where she will become Mrs. Joe Claunch.

TIMOTHY W. PENNINGTON graduates in the Academic Course at the Mid-dlebury University School, the commencement exercises of which occur June 4th.

D. R. HAMILTON and handsome wife came up from Louisville Friday to see his father, Mr. Isaac Hamilton. Mr. H. is with the Highland Flouring Mill Co., one of the biggest concerns in the Fall City.

MISS J. F. GOVERN, of Turnersville, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. Gover latter part of last week and incidentally took in the commencement exercises at the opera hall.—Somerset Journal.

D. A. TWADDLE has bought Pearson's restaurant and Mr. Pearson will take charge of the Log Cabin Hotel June 1st. Mr. Carrier, the present manager of the Log Cabin, will return to a private dwelling.—Corbin Path-finder.

JUDGE E. J. BROADBENT, a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Rout, was nominated for judge of the Kentucky circuit court of appeals by the democrats last week. He is a native of Madison county and since he has made his home in the West has been signally and repeatedly honored by his constituents.

COL. LOUIS LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, was on Saturday's train bound for Lexington. He is one of the most appreciative men of the merits of others and the most deprecative of his own that we ever knew and will go further to return an imaginary or other favor than anybody.

MR. E. W. WYANT, wife and son Edgar, of Leavenworth, Kas., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Allen on their return from a meeting of the Mystic Shrine at Washington, of which Mr. Wyant is a member. He is also freight agent of the Missouri Pacific and a call with Mr. Allen at this office convinced us that he is even cleverer than Mr. Allen had described him.

MRS. S. W. FORGY and Miss Ida Twiddle, of Elkhorn, and the Misses Johnstone, of Hustonville, will arrive today to visit Miss Pearl Johnstone. Kate Boyle, aged 12, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyle, of this place, has been awarded a gold medal, the first prize, by the publishers of St. Nicholas, for the best composition in containing the word "wheel" or "wheels".—Advocate.

D. VICTOR BALLOU is ill of inflammation of the stomach.

MISS HUBBARD cordially invites the public to her art reception at the College tonight.

MRS. W. A. TRIMBLE and Miss Annie Trimble will go to Louisville today to attend the reception.

MRS. GUS HOFMANN and Miss Sue Rout went to Louisville yesterday to visit Miss Annie Carr.

JUDGE R. C. WILLIAMS sends us a program of the commencement exercises of Mt. Vernon College Institute which are now on and close June 1.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. FRANCIS and Walter Walker attended the reception given by Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Doty, of Garrard, to Lewis L. Doty and bride and report a delightful time.

FRANK HOLZELAW is back from Wyoming for a few days. He has bought an implement business at Carroll, that State, and will move his family thither soon. His health is already somewhat improved, we are glad to say.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

HAMILTON for good watch work.

Lot of nice carpets at Beazley & Hays.

UNEEDA Refrigerator or Ice Chest See Warren & Shanks.

TAKE your watches, clocks and job work to Embury & Engleman.

DON'T miss getting those 5c Bargain Percales at Severance & Sons.

FOR SALE.—Two fresh Jersey cows good milkers. Box 161, Stanford.

PRESCRIPTIONS promptly and accurately filled at Craig & Hocker's.

JONES gives his Cut Price Sale this week on gentlemen's shirts. Now is the time to buy.

ANOTHER nice rain fell last night and it looks this morning like we will have some more.

MCKINNEY hasn't a Brown democrat, but he has some mighty "green" and "black" republicans.—McKinney Cor. Somerset Journal.

It is more than probable that excursion trains will be run from Lebanon Junction and Livingston to the 4th of July celebration here.

The peculiar sight of a full-grown partridge following a hen and eating with the little chicks can be seen any time at Mr. William Barton's.

NEWS comes from Mt. Vernon that Egbert Fish was accidentally shot in the leg late last night. The wound is not dangerous and we were unable to find out how it occurred.

THE young Ladies Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, will serve refreshments in Owsley's hall, June 8. Doors open 5 P. M. Admission 25 cents. Come everybody.

SOME of our people who attended the G. A. R. meeting at Lancaster are mean enough to say that the people of that enterprising little village bit off more than they could masticate.

DEATH.—The wife of Jarrett Berry died at her home near Highland Friday of consumption and was buried Saturday afternoon at Mt. Moriah church. She was about 30 years old.

BIG GARDEN.—T. L. Lillard, just over the line in Boyle, has the biggest garden in this section. Six acres of it are in cabbage and a brother of John Christman, our boss gardener, attends to it.

ONLY eight colored persons presented themselves before examiners, Miss Kate Boyle and L. B. Hughes. Of them three got first class certificates, one second, two third and two failed entirely.

DON'T miss the opportunity to go to Cincinnati. Low rate excursions are run every other Sunday via Queen & Crescent Route. Next date is Sunday, June 3d. Special trains. Excellent service and schedules.

It is refreshing to observe that while Lancaster sent $12.55, Lawrenceburg $25 and other towns various sums to help pay Taylor's soldiers, Stanford didn't send a cent. Our republicans either do not think they ought to be paid or have nothing to contribute to the fund.

AGAINST THEM.—A gentleman who spent some time to Whitley county tells us that he was surprised to find a decided sentiment among the best republicans there against Finley and Taylor, some of whom spoke in harsher terms of both than he had heard any democrat use in speaking of them.

CONTEST.—Mr. E. H. Beazley has engaged the opera house for June 22 for his annual elocutionary contest, for which he has secured the following young ladies and will get several more: Misses Baughman, Richmond; Roberts, Danville; Grittle, Lexington; Carpenter, Millersburg; Pinkerton, Hustonville and Bettis, Lancaster.

If those who contributed to the fund to pay the expenses of Messrs. Hubble, Alverson and Embury, indicted in the U. S. court, would come forward with their donations, the treasurer, E. C. Walton, would be enabled to turn over the money to the gentlemen to pay lawyer's fees. Until they do so, he can not—a very clear proposition.

HUSTONVILLE FAIR.—It is more than likely that Hustonville will have a fair this year. The exhibition last year as well as those of other years have been successful from every standpoint and we see no good reason why our West End friends should "not try it again."

A meeting at James Frye's store is called for next Saturday afternoon at 1:30, when a decision will be reached.

ICE CHESTS, refrigerators, &c at Higgins & McKinney's.

SAVE your potatoes by buying bag finish, which kills. W. B. McRoberts.

A DANVILLE ball team was beaten at Hustonville yesterday by the local nine 14 to 5.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—My residence and store house, the latter occupied by Penny's Drug Store. J. W. Hayden.

THE census enumerators begin asking impertinent questions Friday and have the month of June to finish their work in.

AL G. FIELDS' great minstrels will appear here March 12th next. They do not usually play in the smaller towns, but do so this time in order to keep from losing a night on a long jump.

TO POLICY HOLDERS.—Any one holding policies written by me will find me at the old stand with only the best of companies, and will look after them and renew same, as I have done for five years. Pay no attention to what any one may tell you. Thanking you for past favors. Respt., Jesse D. Wearner.

ONE cent a mile going and coming is the rate to Louisville till the morning trains of June 1. On that morning at 7:35 a special from Richmond will pass here, which will arrive in Louisville at 10:30 in time to see the grand parade. Fare for round trip $2.10. Returning, leave Louisville at 8:30 P. M.

MISS GEORGIA LEWIS' school at Walnut Flat closed Friday with an examination, which showed the following pupils to be worthy of honorable mention, they having received over 85 of a possible 100: Minnie Boone 94, Anna Chancellor 91, 2-5, Blanche Newland 90, Maggie Coffey 89, Clarence Boone 88, Geo. Chancellor 88-1-6, Shelby Coffey 86-1-6, Jennie Coffey 85-1-4.

If there is a single man who doubts that we print and send out 3,000 copies of the INTERIOR JOURNAL twice a week, he is cordially invited to step in to the press room any Tuesday or Friday morning, he may select and count them. He will see the mammoth machine draw six reams or more of white paper into its capacious maw and observe what a task it is to mail so many papers.

KENTUCKY'S elections are pretty hot, but they are less so beside a primary held in Kansas City last week. The regularly appointed officers of the election did not suit the mayor and he substituted others. The regulars, including Judge J. M. Phillips, late of Stanford, declined to give up the ballot box and on persisting after a second demand, were arrested and lodged in jail "with Negroes, criminals and vermin." This officers issued a red hot address which is published in the Star, shown us by C. V. Gentry, in which they call on democrats to assert their rights and take occasion to flay the mayor alive.

REV. R. R. NOEL, who arrived home yesterday, says that during the month he spent in Tennessee he preached three weeks at Lenoir City, where he had 27 professions and added 12 to the church. At Knoxville he added Pastor Snow in a week's meeting with three additions. Said he further: "The rain is badly needed there and nothing in the places I have been was as forward and as fresh as in Stanford. The INTERIOR JOURNAL was like a letter from home twice a week, for which I thank you. I enjoyed some good fishing in Tennessee river. Saw them take out some weighing 90 pounds. The best I ate was the drum, of about seven pounds weight. When asked where I was from and being told, "Kentucky," the people would walk around me to see my pistol and bowie knife, but when the natives found I was a peace commissioner they couldn't do too much for me."

IN face of our refusal to bring Gen. Gordon here for a third time and to spite of our expressed convictions that they would lose money, several Confederate soldiers, viz: Messrs. M. C. Sautley, W. G. Welch, J. W. Alcorn and G. W. DeFord, guaranteed for E. H. Beazley, who was to get nothing out of it, the expenses of the lecture, which were about $125, the excess of that amount to go to the Perryville Battle Field Park. As the receipts were only $60 it will be seen how heavily they had the bag to hold. We did well with the general the first time, but lost about $15 on the second trip, the receipts falling off over 100 per cent. Lectures don't go here as we have had impressed on us by the loss of more than $100 in the effort to provide such entertainments. It is a shame though that grand old Gen. Gordon should have to address empty benches and that he did here is no compliment to our people. After being presented by W. S. Burch, Esq., in a neat little speech, Gen. Gordon eloquently told of the hardships that the Spartan band of Confederates endured and of the bravery they exhibited, unparalleled even under the most adverse circumstances. The lecture was interspersed with laughable stories and personal reminiscences and was a gem both in composition and in delivery. Those who missed it missed a rare feast of reason, as well as a flow of soul from the biggest hearted man living. It is not likely that his dear old voice will ever echo here again, as he keenly felt the lack of appreciation, and in the very nature of things he can not be expected much longer to live to appear for a reunited country, for he is 63 and growing feeble. May his days on earth though be greatly extended and strength be given him to continue for many years the prosecution of his noble work.

ROYAL

Absolutely Pure BAKING-POWDER

No inferior or impure ingredients are used in Royal for the purpose of cheapening its cost; only the most highly refined and healthful.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you want to know the effect of alum upon the tender linings of the stomach, touch a piece to your tongue. You can taste biscuit with alum baking powder, but what a cost to health!

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

HARVEY, little son of S. S. Yantle, was bitten on the leg by Alex Martin's dog last night. The wound is a painful one.

THE democrats of Garrard are almost sold for Gov. McCreary for governor, according to expressions given yesterday. We believe that that is the sentiment of the most of this section.

NO. 26, the North bound passenger this morning had eight cars jam full of people, bound for the Confederate reunion at Louisville. Dr. W. B. O'Bannon and wife, E. P. Moritz, wife and Archie Elkin, and a half dozen or so drummers helped to swell the crowd from here.

THE wholesale grocery just opened at Danville—J. P. Frank Grocery Co.—promises to make it warm for the railroads that run to the various towns in this section. They will haul their goods to this and other close-by towns at the low price of five cents per hundred, saving to the merchants from 15 to 25 the freight charges. The goods will be delivered at the merchants doors, doing away with the trouble of hauling them from the depot.

MR. VERNON.—A good crowd attended Mt. Vernon circuit court yesterday, but it was the quietest public day for years. There was no drinking, no trouble and last but not least no patent medicine men. Court was called promptly at 9 o'clock with Judge T. Z. Morrow and Commonwealth's Attorney J. N. Sharpe on hand and full of business. No visiting attorneys except W. A. Morrow had arrived, but the local bar was present in full force. Most of the day was taken up with the trial of whisky and jail cases and a large number were disposed of. The docket is heavy in both civil and criminal cases, there being five murder cases, and Judge Morrow has extended the term two weeks in order to "clean up" the case of E. K. Wilson is set for the 5th day. Many think he will be acquitted. Mr. Vernon is growing slowly but surely and all he needs is time and a few more enterprising citizens. Poudation has been finished for J. T. Adams' splendid brick business house and its completion is being pushed. The bank question has not been decided, but it is more than likely one will begin business soon. Our efficient correspondent, James Maret, is as busy as a bee in his telephone business, but he found time to help the I. J. cause considerably. Egbert Fish and others also have the paper's best wishes for kindly assistance. Editor Albright was as courteous as a man could be and proffered his help to increase the circulation and otherwise assist the I. J. pilgrim, for which we are thankful.

FOR RENT! The property at Crab Orchard, lately occupied by Mrs. M. A. Singleton. It includes residence, garden, pasture, &c. Apply to C. H. Singleton, Crab Orchard, Ky.

$5 REWARD. For return of cow, bought from Bud Holmes and which left Broadhead and went in the direction of his home about a month ago. She is a small, red cow with a white spot on the forehead, low sharp horns and is three years old. Mrs. W. H. LYNN, White, Ky.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen. One black mare, right fore hoof split from shoe to edge of hoof; small knot on left shoulder. Any information will be thankfully received and well rewarded. MELVIN FREDERICK, Vinsennie, Casey Co., Ky.

MT. VERNON.

A larger crowd than usual is in attendance at circuit court.

Circuit court convened here today Monday, Judge Morrow presiding.

The kiln at White Rock has proved to be defective. New ones will be built.

The closing exercises of the College Institute will take place during the week.

Buster & Co. have suspended operations in lime business at White Rock until a new kiln is made.

Since Rockcastle's roads have been made so much better the vehicle trade has greatly increased.

A new road is being put on the residence of Mrs. Nancy Proctor to replace the one put there in 1864.

A New Orleans party is inspecting the Pine Hill mines, with a view to purchasing, and erecting coke ovens.

Smith Ping left headmost into Mrs. Proctor's well Sunday morning.

He climbed over by the well bucket rope and suffered but little inconvenience from the mishap.

Among the decorations at Lancaster G. A. R. meet the largest flag displayed was that hung over the street by the independent telephone people in front of their exchange.

P. H. Shute, who moved to this county, from Ohio, some years since, died of paralysis Thursday, aged about 65. He was a highly respected citizen and a successful farmer.

E. D. Hanel, of this county, a U. S. storekeeper in Anderson county, who suffered a stroke of paralysis a month since, suffered another slight stroke, but is able to attend to his duties.

In a recent trip over the pikes leading out of Lancaster we found places that reminded us of some of our roughest mountain roads. Some mighty poor judgment has been used in the repair of these pikes.

James McGulre, known by everyone for many years past as "Uncle Jimmy," died at his home on Clear creek last week in his 100th year. He was a remarkable man and had but little sickness during his long and eventful career.

On Monday afternoon when the decision of the supreme court was announced here, the roosters all over town kept up a constant crowing for an hour. Minor Fish, Hugh Miller, the writer and others noticed it. Of course the crowing had no connection with the decision, but it was a peculiar coincidence.

R. L. and Samuel Brown have returned from Nashville, where they have been attending law school. Sam's McClure, "Old Cull," is on the desk list.

Mrs. A. B. Cromer has joined her husband at Ash Grove, Mo., whence he had gone recently. Our people were glad to welcome your business manager on the streets here yesterday. Dr. E. J. Brown, of your place, was here Monday. J. Blackoff, the junk man of your town, was in "our midst" first of week. Dr. Thomas, who was so low at Pine Hill, has recovered.

LIVINGSTON.

Calloway's new hall adds considerably to the looks of Main Street. There was a big job there Thursday night, which was largely attended.

Misses Mary McKenna and Ethel Mudd returned Tuesday from Richmond, Messrs. Charles Scott and Frank Holtzclaw, of Goshen neighborhood, were here visiting Robert and Will Burns. Miss Lida Cook is visiting at Gumbo-Sulphur. Mrs. Bryant is on the sick list. Mesdames B. N. Koller and Satterfield were at Lebanon Friday attending a fish fry. Mesdames Monk and Joe Oliver are visiting at Brothead. Mrs. Jude Thompson, of Lebanon Junction, has been on a visit to her mother of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gray are in Lancaster. Mr. George Griffith has moved his family back to this place from Altamont. Their many friends welcome them back. Miss Jessie Bogart, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Rice, will leave for her home in Cincinnati Tuesday. B. N. Koller was in Louisville Friday attending a republican convention. Mrs. R. C. Wade's school closed Friday. Mr. Jacob Sambrinks and wife are in Cincinnati. Joe O'Donnell is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. Ratnes.

RECOVER THE GRAVE.

A startling incident of which John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was a most despondent condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pale continually in lack and color, and appetite entirely gone. I was a day. These physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised 'Electric Bitters,' and I bought a bottle. I continued their use for three weeks, and now a well man. I know they saved my life and collected the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 25c, guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store."

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out all obligations made by their firm.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The six Jackson brothers, of Marion county, S. C., who entered the same company at the beginning of the war, with ages ranging from 17 to 30, and fought through, engaging in many of the Virginia battles, will attend the reunion at Louisville.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted this disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—JOHN E. CLIFFORD, Proprietor, Norwood House, N. Wood, N. Y. This remedy is sold by Craig & Hockers, Druggists.
